

Name: _____ Date: _____

Livestock Equipment Matching Activity

Directions: Match each equipment description card to the corresponding equipment name card

Balling Gun

Used for bloodless castration of calves, kids, and goats and docking tails in sheep

CIDR

Tool used for animal health care management that allows producers to administer boluses

Automatic Dose Syringe

Used to administer precise amounts of liquids orally

Elastrator

Breeding/reproductive tool that identifies females in standing heat or potentially bred during breeding season

OB Chain

T-shaped device that release progesterone for a certain time period. Used for estrous synchronization within a herd

Marking Harness

Main use is for administering vaccinations to multiple animals without reloading

Drench Gun

Device used to assist in pulling lambs, kids, and calves when dystocia is being exhibited